

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

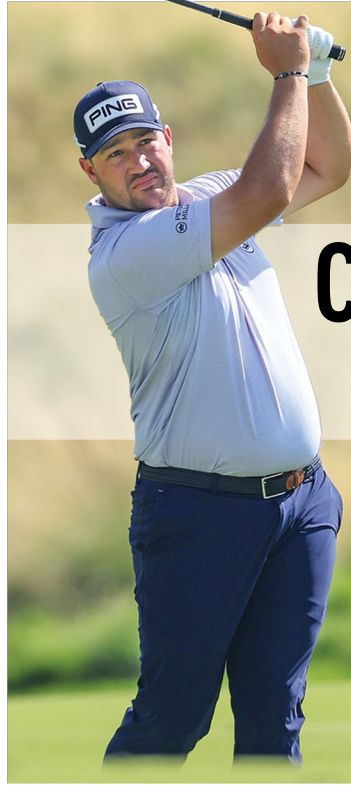

Matt McCarty wins three times in 35 days on the Korn Ferry Tour, then earns a promotion to the PGA Tour, where he wins in his second start as a member. He's had himself a year. And now comes the news that he is the unanimous winner of the Jack Nicklaus Award as the 2024 Korn Ferry Tour Player of the Year. His 68.38 scoring average set the tour's single-season record for players with at least 60 rounds. He also led the KFT in putting average.

McCarty is fully exempt on the PGA Tour in 2025.

COMING TO AMERICA

Thriston Lawrence was rewarded for his consistent run of impressive results this season on the DP World Tour by receiving dual membership on the DP and PGA tours.

Among his 10 top 10s were five runners-up and a fourth-place finish at The Open Championship. He finished second in the DP World Tour Eligibility Ranking, Lawrence is a four-time winner on the DP World Tour. Playing in the U.S. won't be unfamiliar to the 27-year-old, who has made 15 PGA Tour starts.

FINALES FOR PGA, LPGA

PING staffers on the PGA and LPGA tours are preparing for their last official tournaments of the season.

Austin Eckroat, fresh off his second PGA Tour win, is among 13 who will compete for The RSM Classic trophy. They include Matt McCarty, a first-time PGA Tour winner this fall.

On the LPGA, eight PING pros qualified on their season-long points for the CME Group Tour Championship, including Lauren Coughlin, who comes in with two big wins, plus Jennifer Kupcho, Linn Grant and Allisen Corpuz.
