

First week in the bag, first win. Kris Reitan was locked in with his new PLD Custom Ally Blue H.

REITAN ROLLS

Kris Reitan's first PGA Tour victory came at an opportune time for two reasons. The rookie won by two at the Truist Championship, a Signature Event with a $3.6 million winner's check, and he can ride the momentum into this week's major, the PGA Championship.

Switching to a PLD Custom Ally Blue H putter for Quail Hollow paid instant dividends. He was 2nd in Strokes Gained-Putting for the week, picking up +5.158 strokes on the field. With the win, he climbed to a career-best 25th in the Official World Golf Ranking.

Reitan earned his card with two wins last season on the DP World Tour.

PING
WEEK

Matt McCarty has been grinding out strong performances all season, and he did it again at the Truist Championship, where he earned a T10, his third straight top 10. His game is in great shape as he prepares for his second PGA Championship this week. He has four top 10s, including a T2 at the American Express, helping him pocket nearly $3 million. McCarty has one PGA Tour win.

OH WINS 1ST IN KOREA

Seung Taek Oh overcame a three-stroke deficit in the final round with a bogey-free 67 to earn his first career victory on the Korean Tour at the KPGA Founders Cup.

Oh separated with a birdie on the 13th hole, followed by a hole-out from the bunker for a birdie at 14. He relied on a G430
