Lauren Coughlin is one of 15 PING pros at the AIG Women's Open.

CLOSING WITH THE OPEN

It comes down to this. Major season concludes this week when PING pros vie for the hardware at the AIG Women's Open in England.

Fresh from high finishes Sunday at the Scottish Open, Lauren Coughlin and Leona Maguire bring momentum when they tee it up Thursday at Royal Lytham & St Annes GC. Coughlin earned her third career LPGA win earlier this season.

Past major winner Allisen Corpuz has enjoyed a season marked by consistency with a number of strong performances.

Also with a major to her credit among four LPGA titles, Jennifer Kupcho matched her best result of the season earlier at the U.S. Women's Open.

Cassie Porter's game has been trending in recent weeks, finishing high on the leaderboard twice.

Four earned their way through the Ladies European Tour: Kelsey Bennett (playing her first major), Cara Gainer, Amelia Garvey and Darcey Harry.
