90 WINS FOR G440

After Sunday's win on the PGA Tour, G440 LST has nearly 60 victories.

G440 LST LEADS WAY

For the second week in a row, a G440 LST driver was played to win a PGA Tour event and both winners finished #1 in Strokes Gained: Off The Tee, an uncommon feat. It is the 90th title for G440 drivers; 58 have come with the LST model.

The winner of the John Deere Classic on Sunday relied on a G440 LST, gaining more than five strokes off the tee over four rounds. The previous week, Viktor Hovland put on a driving display with G440 LST in taking the Travelers Championship, where he was #1, gaining four strokes off the tee.

FINAU SIZZLES WITH SCOTTSDALE TEC

With his Scottsdale TEC Ally Blue Onset putter, Tony Finau made more than 236 feet of putts during the second round of the John Deere Classic. It is the second-highest mark since 2004, when the PGA Tour started recording the stat.

Finau's accuracy from distance was uncanny, his longest coming from nearly 68 feet. He also made putts of 45' 5"; 36' 6"; 31' 8"; and 28' 5". He one-putted nine times.

He's had success with the putter all season, starting at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, where he was #1 in Strokes Gained: Putting.

PING
WEEK

High-fives have been the theme of Stewart Cink's season, as here at the U.S. Senior Open Championship, where Cink finished runner-up after winning the first two majors on the PGA Tour Champions. Going 1st, 1st and 2nd in the majors so far and winning four times has given Cink a big lead in the Charles Schwab Cup points standings. He'll bring that major mojo to another major this week, The Kaulig Companies Championship. Joining him will be the defending champion Miguel Angel Jiménez, who was T8 at the U.S. Senior Open, and T9 the previous week.

Allisen Corpuz

MAJOR FOCUS ON EVIAN

In France, PING's LPGA Tour pros are tuning up for the Amundi Evian Championship, the fourth of five majors.

Past U.S. Open winner Allisen Corpuz has been showing her major cred, posting a top five at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship after a top 10 at the U.S. Women's Open. She has four top 10's this season.

SCOTTISH AN 'OPEN' TUNEUP

A roster of nearly 30 PING pros is gathering for the Genesis Scottish Open, a marquee event co-sanctioned by the PGA Tour and DP World Tour.

Travelers winner Viktor Hovland and U.S. Open champion Wyndham Clark and are among the staffers who will compete in Scotland at the buildup to the Open Championship the following week at Royal Birkdale.

Kris Reitan has already had a successful rookie campaign coming over from the DP World Tour. He's won the Truist Championship and posted three additional top 10's, helping him earn more than $6 million.
