

CLUTCH WINS IN KOREA

YOO SETS RECORD IN VICTORY

Spearheaded by a record-setting round, Hyun Jo Yoo earned her second victory this season on the Korea LPGA Tour at the HJ Shipbuilding & Construction-Dongbu Construction Championship. Yoo's 11 birdies and no bogeys in the second round set a tournament record for most points (22) over 18 holes under the Modified Stableford scoring format. A G440 LST driver and G440 hybrid were among her PING clubs as she celebrated her fourth career win.

LEE TAKES INAUGURAL EVENT

Dai Han Lee will go down in the history books as the first-ever winner of the Amazing Cree Open, an inaugural event on the Korean PGA Tour.

He surged into the lead with an 8-under performance on Saturday, then pulled away with birdies on holes 13 and 14 Sunday, carding a 4-under 66 for a one-shot victory, his second career title on the KPGA Tour.

Included in his bag were a G430 MAX driver, G440 MAX fairway and an s259 wedge.

Alvaro Ortiz finished 5th in KFT points; the top 20 earn PGA Tour cards.

ORTIZ PGA TOUR BOUND

The end of the Korn Ferry Tour schedule on Sunday heralded an exciting new beginning for Alvaro Ortiz, who officially received his first PGA Tour card for the 2027 season.

He secured his card last month with the second of his two KFT titles this year. He added two more top 10's, including a T9

Sunday at the Korn Ferry Tour Championship. He claimed the UNC Health Championship, and the Simmons Bank Open for the Snedeker Foundation.

Ortiz is the younger brother of PING Pro Carlos Ortiz. The 2027 PGA Tour season begins at The American Express, Jan. 22-25.
