HATTON GIVES G450 1ST WIN

Launching drives with his new G450 driver and relying on his G450 7-wood, Tyrrell Hatton came up big on the big stage, running away to win by five Sunday at the DP World Tour Championship. It is the first title for the G450 family.

Leading by one to start the final round of the season finale, Hatton surged ahead on the back with birdies on 10, 12, 14 and 15 to earn his ninth victory on the DP World Tour.

"This is really special," he said of his record-tying sixth Rolex Series title. Hatton finished second the previous week with the same G450 technology at the Abu Dhabi Aldar Championship.

CINK SOARS AGAIN

For the second straight year, Stewart Cink was all smiles cradling a trophy in each arm Sunday at Phoenix Country Club. One piece of hardware signified winning the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, one for the season-long Charles Schwab Cup points title.

As it has been all season, driving was a strength. Cink relied on a G440 MAX driver, averaging more than 312 yards, and he bashed the longest drive of the week at 384 yards.

Cink led the Charles Schwab Cup standings wire-to-wire on the strength of six victories among his Tour-leading 18 top 10's, 15 times finishing in the top 5. All of those paydays added up to make him the first PGA Tour Champions player to surpass $4 million in a single season.

Joe Dean, shown above at the DP World Tour Championship crushing his G450 driver, concluded his best career year on the DP World Tour with a PGA Tour card in hand. Dean will enjoy dual membership on the PGA Tour and DP World Tour in 2027 after a season that saw him claim his first DP World Tour victory and post two more top 5's. The 32-year-old Englishman also has G450 fairways in the bag.

He won two majors this year, the Senior PGA Championship and the Regions Tradition, and was runner-up at a third, the U.S. Senior Open Championship.

For the year, he topped the money list at nearly $4.4 million, was #1 in greens in regulation at 77.59%, and led in most rounds in the 60's with 47.
